Intro from Wambli and welcoming

Summary:

The Boys and Girls Club meeting covered several key points. Robert Hullman was confirmed as the new chair, succeeding Zach Mendez. Paula has been managing significant responsibilities alone. The club discussed upcoming events, including a Halloween trunk-or-treat with homemade soups and family activities. They also planned for the Native Summit in Chandler, Arizona, with members attending and contributing beaded lanyards and other items. The board addressed the absence of Elwood, deciding to open his position. They also discussed logistics for the Native Summit, including travel and accommodations. The meeting concluded with plans for future meetings and events.
